

Leadership for Social Change

- Consciousness of self
- Congruence
- Commitment
- Collaboration
- Common Purpose
- Controversy with Civility
- Citizenship

Individual Values:

Consciousness of Self

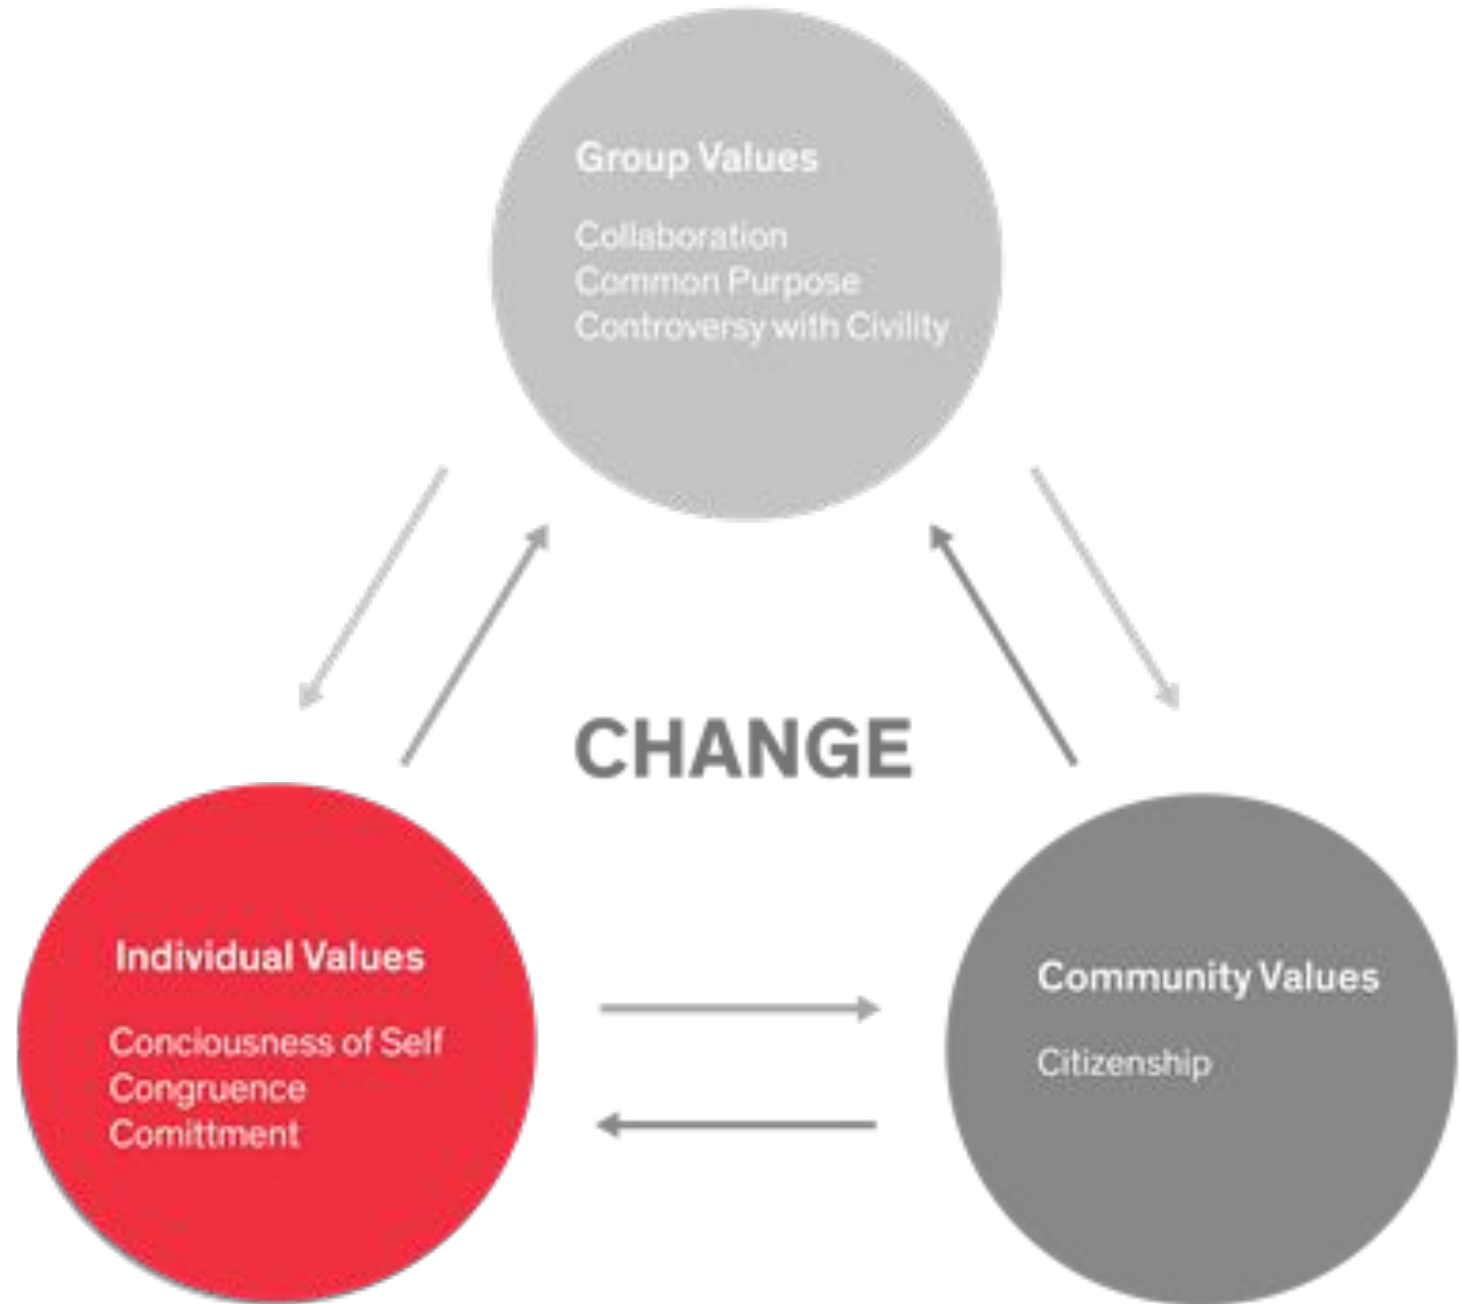

Individual Values

Consciousness of Self
Congruence
Comittment

Individual Values

- Consciousness of Self
 - Awareness of our own beliefs, values, attitudes and emotions
 - Things that motivate us

Individual Values: Congruence

Individual Values

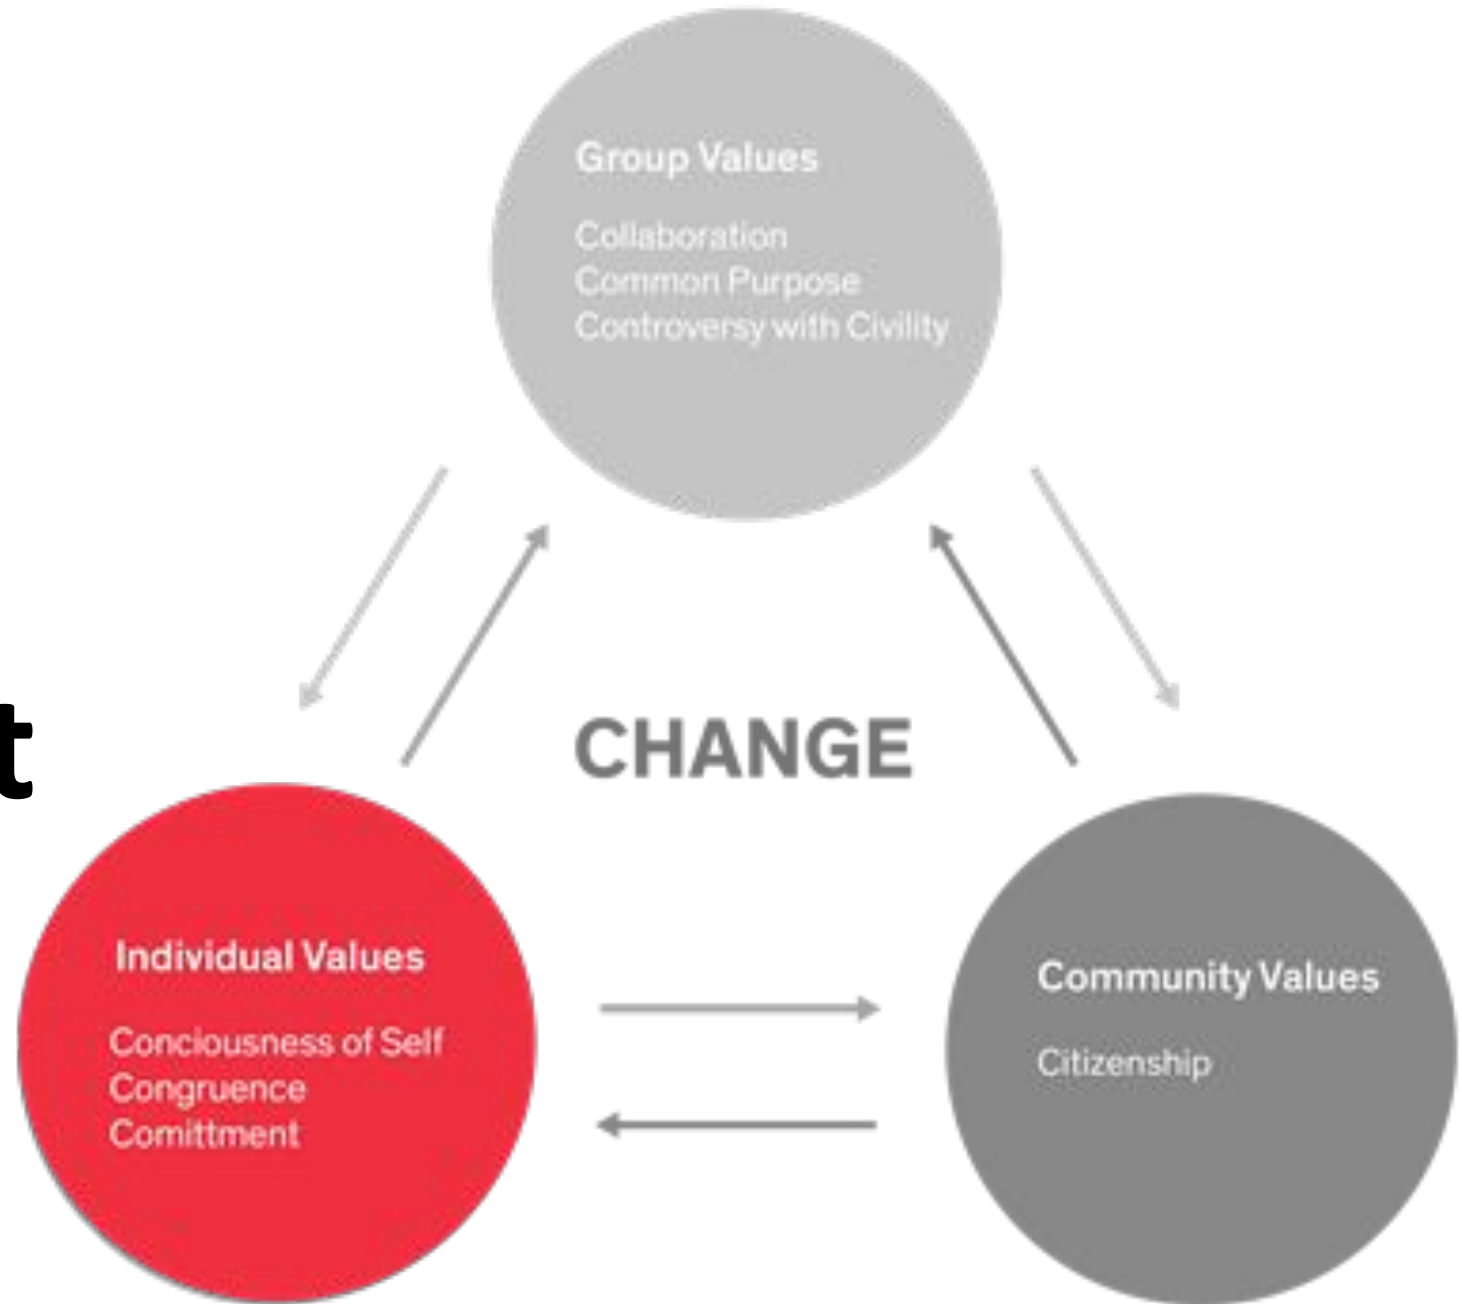

Consciousness of Self
Congruence
Comittment

Individual Values

- Congruence
 - Regular, practiced actions for engaging with others

Individual Values

Commitment

Individual Values

Conciolousness of Self
Congruence
Comittment

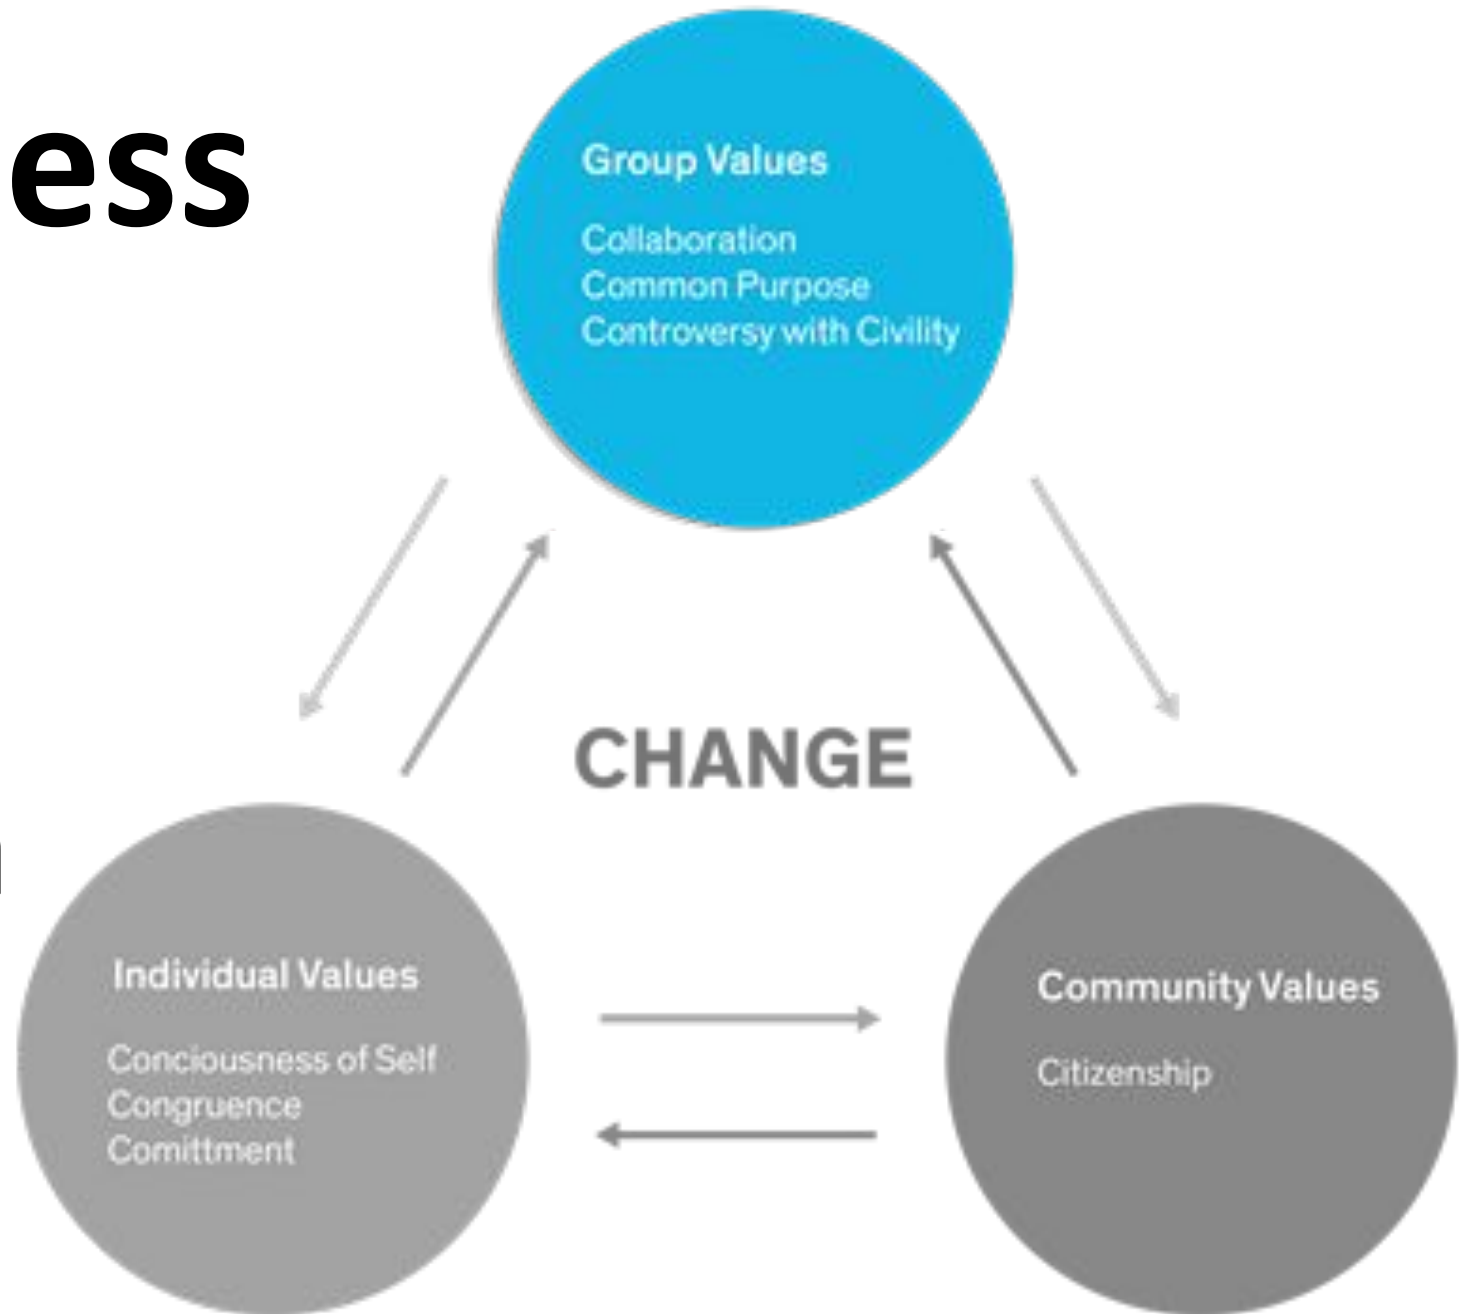

Individual Values

- Commitment

- Feeling a sense of obligation or dedication to a cause, effort or action

Group Process Values:

Collaboration

Group Values

Collaboration

Common Purpose

Controversy with Civility

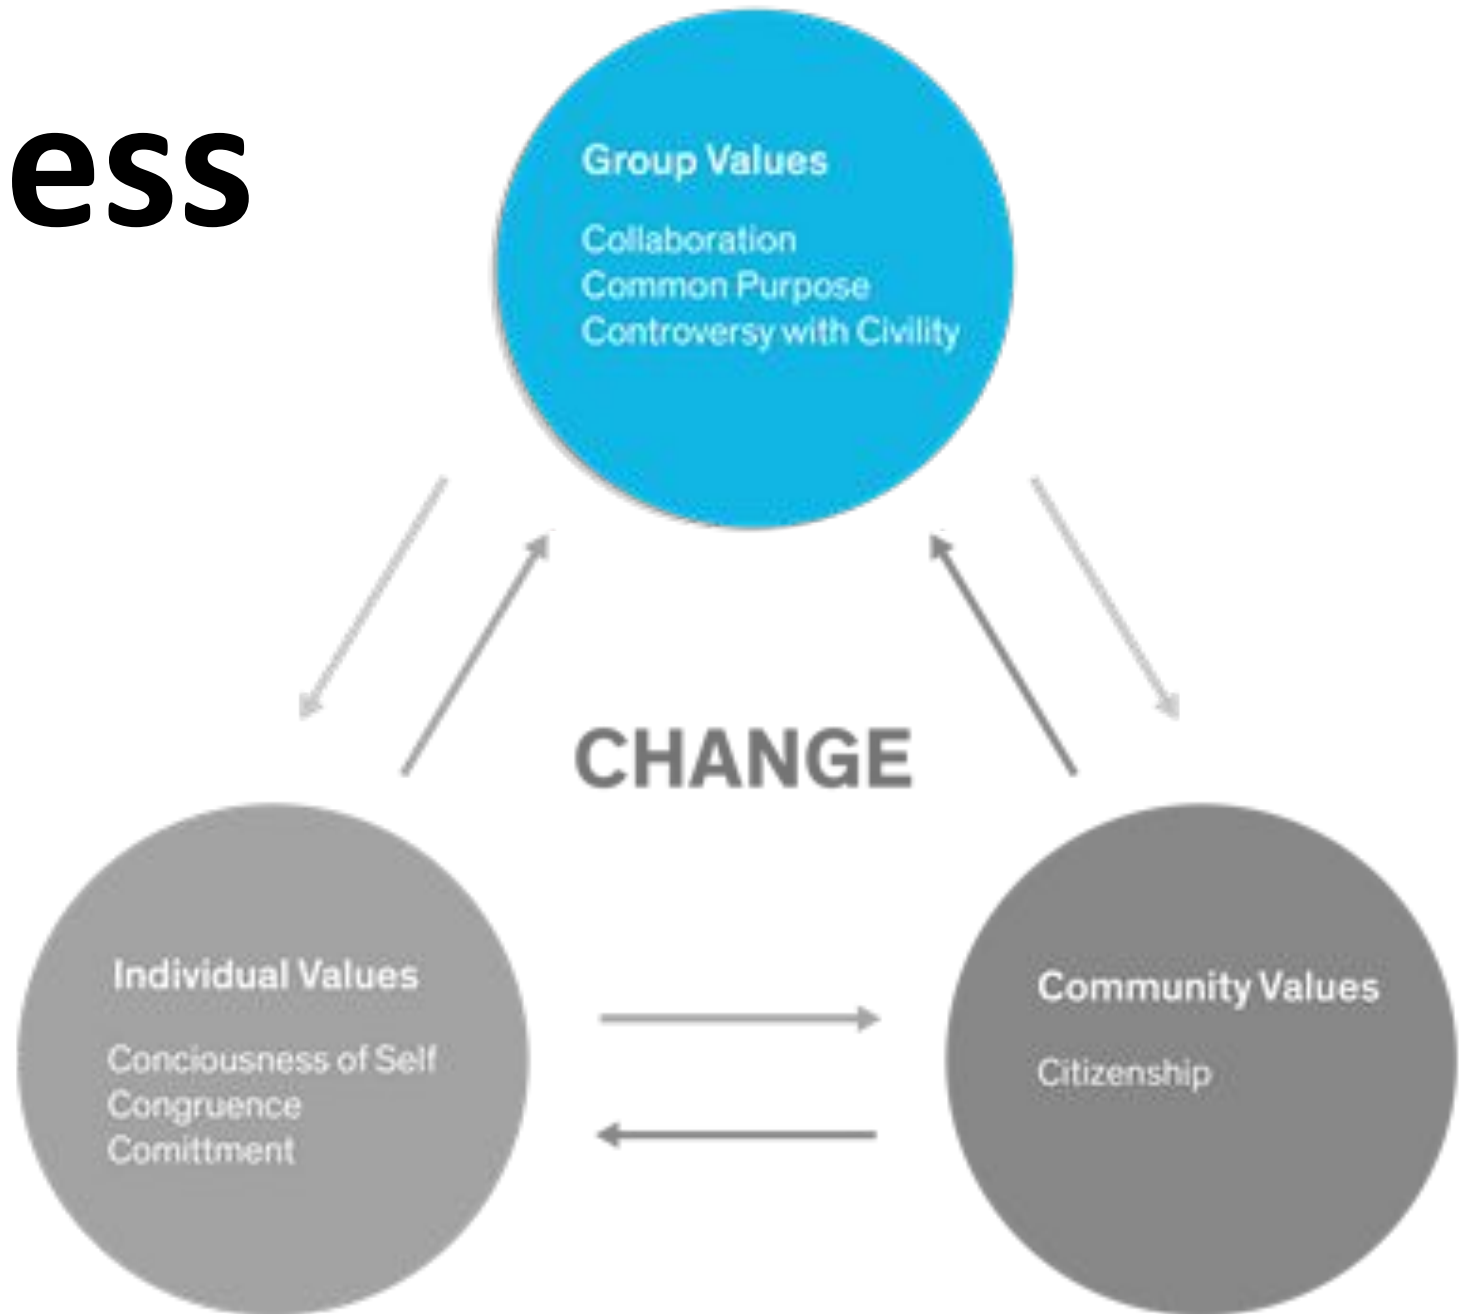

Group Process Values

- Collaboration

- Coming together across difference to combine strengths, perspectives and efforts

Group Process Values:

Common Purpose

Group Values

Collaboration

Common Purpose

Controversy with Civility

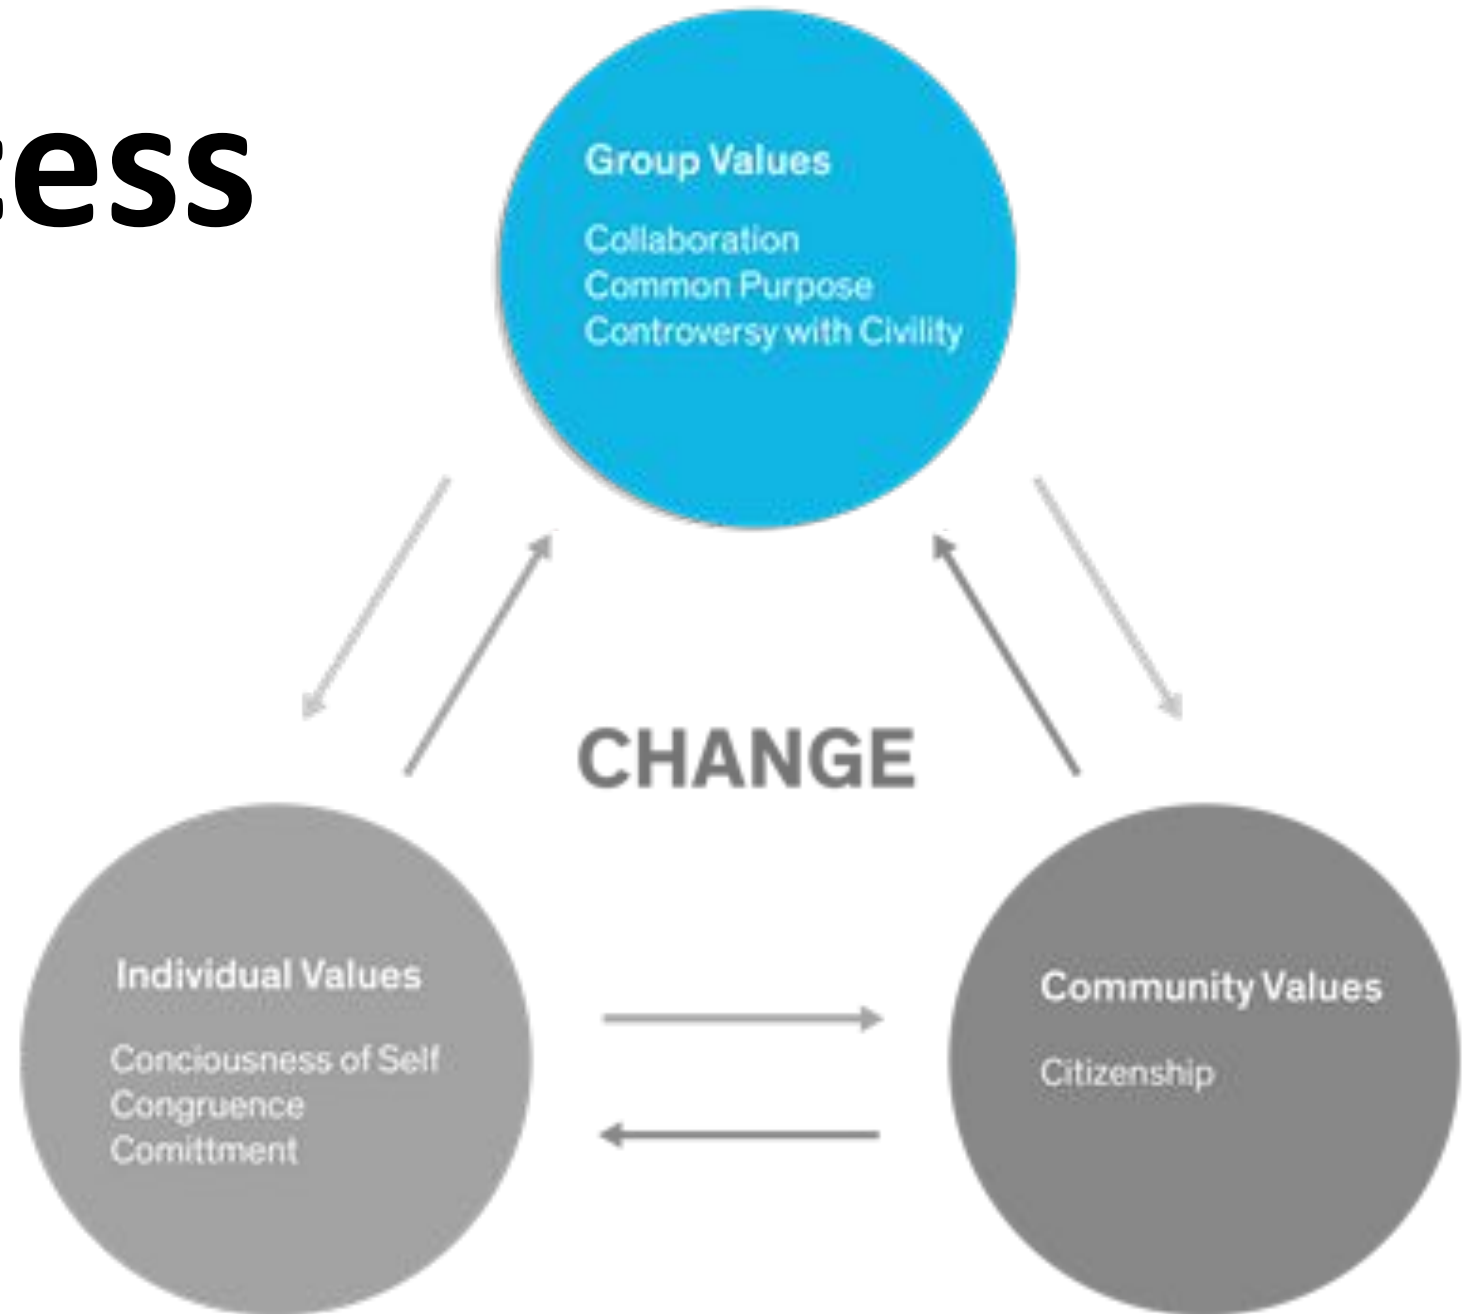

Group Process Values

- Common Purpose

- Working together to identify a common goal, outline a plan for achieving said goal and carrying out that plan collectively

Group Process Values

Controversy with Civility

Group Values

Collaboration

Common Purpose

Controversy with Civility

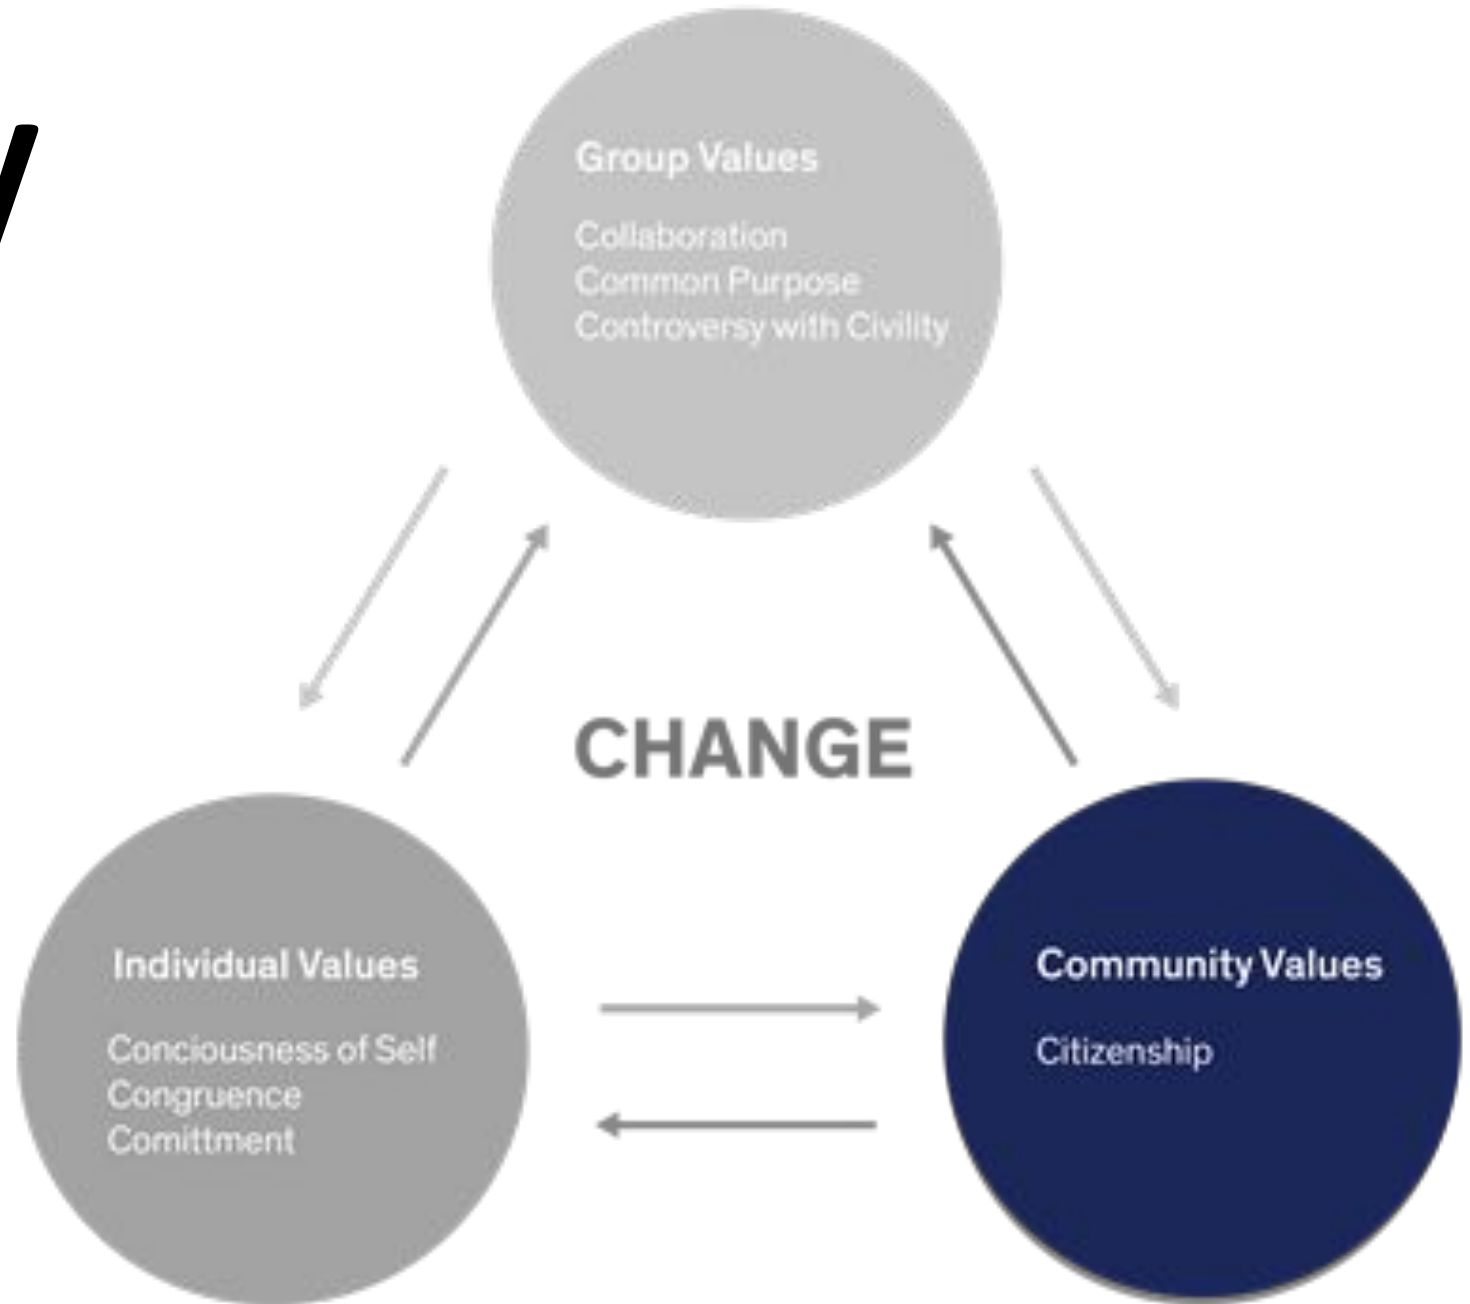

Group Process Values

- Controversy with Civility

- Civility is the willingness to respect diversity and hear others viewpoints with an open mind
- Controversy with diverse opinions often lead to a creative solution especially when it is done with civility, common purpose and collaboration

Community Value:

Citizenship

Community Values

Citizenship

Community Value

- Citizenship

- An individual's responsibility to be active and involved in collaborative efforts to engage in their community and society